Law enforcement may interview a juvenile that is a suspect, a witness, or victim of an incident or alleged crime. In accordance with Rule 8 of the Utah Rules of Juvenile Procedure:

- ☐ The juvenile will be advised of his or her rights, and the juvenile will waive his or her rights for the interview to proceed.
- ☐ If the juvenile is under 14 the juvenile's parent or legal guardian is present or has given written permission.
- ☐ If the juvenile is over 14, the juvenile's parent or legal guardian has given consent to interview the juvenile.
- ☐ If the juvenile is in DCFS custody, the Guardian ad Litem has been notified and given consent to interview the juvenile.
- ☐ A Court Order permits interviewing the juvenile without a parent or legal guardian having to be present or having to give permission or consent.

I acknowledge compliance with Rule 8 of the Utah Rules of Juvenile Procedure summarized above:
